Dear Bro Umar,

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S3vxYrCEJeM&feature=related>

I just attended the online lecture of ABDUL BARI YAHYA yesterday Divine Interpretation of Istekhara and honestly all things make sense one I still want to convince my parents as I love them more than anything and the reason my first marriage was not even 0 percent parents fault but as the people were dishonest and the two key steps of a marriage are istekhara and isteiarah (Mashwarah). And all of the steps tie back if I analyse every thing I am going blind in the love of this man while I also know that there is a big gap in his nature and mine. NO DOUBT MASHALAH HE IS a practicing muslim and wise and well mannered but him and me are different as well in some ways which I realised and tried to explain to Him but he doesn't understand and keeps begging that he can't live without me.

I Also have been studying ibn sirin interpretation of dreams and my last dream hints that one I take him off, as only Allah subhan knows the best. And me drinking orange juice fanta indicates that it is a mixture of both sorrows and happiness. And all I know is that parents never do anything for children. And as the Imam said that there will be no barakah in a relation if it is not blessed by parents. I am constantly getting this vibe that no doubt I will get love from one side but if I do this without their consent it will not end in a good way(no brakah).And when I pray day in and day out how can Allah subhan leave me He loves his makhlook 70 times more.What makes me wonder is that hinderance only comes in a way when Allah is trying to tell us that this is not a good desicion yes I think it is my fault initially of not doing istekhara properly I think If i could have heard this lecture I would do it with full faith.And rather than asking people (i know )who claim they can do istekarah which is gunah(that is like matching stars I think)Walah alim and no one has the knowledge more than Allah subhan about our future.Only Istekharah guides you and truely it is like GPS as Imam said.A true muslim prays the salah with full neyat and then leaves on God.Either the thing happens or you get obstacles and He also said that even if we make wrong decision end result is the best.I just think that our knowledge is too limited and me having not that much islamic knowledge got distracted.But I love Allah subhan a lot and just want to learn more and more.And day in and out I pray for forgiveness for intentional and unintentional mistakes.I just know one thing that every time I have dis obeyed my parents be it a smallest descion I have lost.

Let's see what happens and I dont know the end but my last try would be trying one more time to convince parents which I know wont happen but still and this person might leave me when I say this but I dont know I just feel it not being right going and doing nikah myself.

And lastly thanks a lot brother for your advise I just wish that I heard the lecture before to give me proper guidance and May Allah subhan bless me with His Love always and may I learn more and more about Islam Ameen.

Kind Regards,Sister

I WOULD SAY MARRY THE FIRST ONE [YOUR CHOICE]. IF THINGS WENT WRONG IN YOUR MARRIAGE LATER, ALLAH NAA KARI, YOU WOULD NOT BLAME ANYONE ELSE. BUT IF YOU MARRY THE SECOND ONE, YOU WOULD ALWAYS THINK THAT OTHERS ARE RESPONSIBLE IF ANYTHING WERE TO GO WRONG [ALLAH NAA KARI, AGAIN]. THAT IS MY HONEST ADVICE.

Dear Dr Umar,

I really dont know but I really really am stuck I wish I can ask anyone for help?Beshak no one apart from Allah can help ( I am praying day in and out of it)but on earth if I can seek advise of a human.

It is a bit long story that I might have told you earlier where I had two proposals and out of them one proposal my parents disapproved while I was communicating with the first one on phone and started liking him as he is a very decent ,honest and sincere person.Our views matched about various aspects.But the drawback of this person which I sincerely dont think is a drawback is he is not a masters as compared to myself and nor his family is so educated.Then talking about the second proposal is from my friend's brother which seems more like a perfect in every way.And my parents want me to marry this person.

In all this situation I firstly did my istekhara about the first one and had no dream at all?While my own friend did it without me knowing and saw me in white clothes talking to them and I am like a child .

I got this dream interpreted from you.

Well then I saw a dream about missing the plane as I was forcing my parents to get me married to the person i wanted and just near to set date my parents started pressurizing and my mum said that she did see any good dream in istekhara which I dont know the dreams.And I said no to the first person who at no cost was believing all he said is he is not so educated and rich that is why my parents say know.Which I truely know is the case.And me missing the plane was that I missed the chance of marriage but yet I saw I caught the next one just after few minutes.

Now My parents want me to marry the second person while I still feel that i wont be able to give strong feelings to this person as I at heart liked the first person and whole Ramadan every day I prayed tahajud and prayed for the first person and me.Now he wants me to marry him without parents consent and as this is my second marriage I know I can but then I also know I will still not be happy if I go against my parents.The frst person is willing to study and write this on nikah that he will do anything to be more educated and bring all the facilities.

The only solution I thought was to do istekhara and pray which I started and I dreamt the dream of me having a spider on shoulder and me removing it softly not first time but second time when she (my friend) asked me to.And I sincerely feel trapped between love of parents and a person whom I love because he has promised to be faithful to me and who is willing to study for me?And maintain me?

One more I have asked the first person also to do istekhara for all this i.e his plan of marriage and second he has applied for completing further studies.

A silly question I know it can be wrong but guide me please where we also got someone else to do istekhara and they are saying it is strong no for the second proposal which seems perfect?Is it correct for me to believe them.May be I am believing them because at heart all I know is that I want a Saleh and naik partner for me.And I seem to be in a double mind situation because I also feel that if I dont want to hurt anyone even unintentional.May Allah Guide us All Ameen.

Can you help your muslim sister in this situation what should I do?

WA LAIKUM SALAM, MANWARA

YOUR DREAM SEEMS TO BE TELLING YOU THAT, ALTHOUGH YOU ARE STUCK IN A RUT FRIENDS PROVIDE WELCOME RESPITE FROM PROBLEMS.

DREAM DICTIONARY : This dream dictionary is based upon hundreds of real dreams and has been meticulously researched. However, the only person who can truly identify the cause of a dream is the dreamer. Use the questions and quotes on this page to help you find out what has triggered your dream.

SPIDERS : Spiders are a little like snakes in that they usually refer to something bad in your life. They will usually refer to some situation where you feel trapped or stuck. Perhaps you dislike your job and wish to move to something more interesting. Perhaps you feel stuck in a relationship. Just think of those emotions about being caught in a spiders web. Where do you feel that same sense in real life or been unable to move.

QUESTIONS to help you make associations(pick the one that makes most sense to you)

- Do you feel stuck in some relationship?
- Are there some responsibilities that are holding you back?
- Do you feel unable to escape some situation or relationship?
- Are you wanting to make a decision but unable to right now?
- Do you feel trapped right now?

KEY WORDS : Stuck, trapping, depression, lack of freedom, responsibilities holding you back, unable to escape, wary(write down some quotes that capture your key feelings on issues that have been dominating your mind. Then see if any of these words could appear in those quotes)
